

DOGTOOTH AMETHYST

Dogtooth Amethyst is a combination of White Quartz and Amethyst, mixed to form a V-banded or striped pattern. It's usually a beautiful lavender, purple, or white in color, sometimes called Banded Amethyst or Chevron Amethyst. This stone can usually be found in India, Brazil, and Africa. You need a Chevron-Amethyst in your life because this stone combines the enhancing and strengthening qualities of a Quartz with the stress-relieving qualities of an Amethyst.
